

COME JOIN US TO RUN TO 'AVÍI MALYKYÍTT (PICACHO PEAK)

KWANAMII SPIRIT RUN

Protecting Our Sacred Lands

IN SUPPORT OF THE KW'TSÁN NATIONAL MONUMENT

SATURDAY,
MARCH 29, 2025

REGISTRATION STARTS AT 8:30 AM

RUN BEGINS AT 9:00 AM

from the Quechan Community Center

For Information call 928-210-0114

The Quechan Nation, and many other River Tribes, look at running as medicine and as healing. For centuries, runners took important messages hundreds of miles. To the Quechans, 'Avíi Malykyítt (Picacho Peak) is known for its spiritual and cultural connection with the land and water. This is a deeply rooted tradition that embodies our heritage and resilience.

Land | Language | Culture | Identity

The Kwanamii Spirit Run Honors the Resilient Pride of the Quechan People

This event is supported by:

Ah Mut Pi Pah • Quechan Nation
Xuumar Akuuts • Kwatsaan iiya

All ages are welcome

22 miles of interval running. Meet at the Quechan Community Center